

Community Impact & Engagement Director

United Way of the Concho Valley is seeking a passionate, relationship-driven, and self-motivated Community Impact & Engagement Director to lead community partnerships, impact initiatives, and engagement efforts that improve lives across the Concho Valley.

This position oversees community impact strategies, collaborative partnerships, volunteer engagement, and key literacy programs including United We Read and Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. The Director also plays an active role in supporting the organization's annual fundraising campaign and community outreach efforts.

The ideal candidate is a self-starter who thrives both independently and in a team-oriented environment, with strong communication, relationship-building, and organizational skills.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree preferred
- Relevant professional experience may be considered in lieu of education
- Experience in nonprofit leadership, education, fundraising, or community engagement preferred

Compensation & Benefits:

- Starting salary: $50,000
- 100% employer-paid employee health and dental insurance
- Retirement benefits
- Paid time off
- Flexible work environment
- Opportunity to make a meaningful impact in the community

To Apply:

Please submit cover letter and resume to:

Ashley Ammons, President/CEO
United Way of the Concho Valley
ashley@uwcv.org

United Way of the Concho Valley is an Equal Opportunity Employer.